Working Group Meeting

3 p.m. January 25, 2007 at the Grand Junction BLM Field Office

There was a debriefing on the status of meetings with the City and Town governing councils. There was a general discussion that Boards wanted more information and would like to be more in the loop of the Community Development Plan. There was a discussion on how to keep the Boards and the public up-to-date.

There was a discussion on the timeline of the Watershed Plan. There was a general consensus that the draft should be ready for review in March 2007. There was a general consensus that after the January 2007 public meeting there would be two additional public meetings; one would be an open house in April 2007, the final meeting would be after the rollout. It was decided that the City and Town Boards should be given time to review the document. It is the goal of the Working Group to finish the document in June 2007.

Working Group public comments on the current Watershed Plan are due Feb. 9. The revised updated draft will be sent February 20. Revised hard draft to go through on 1 p.m. Feb. 28. Then next meeting 1 p.m. March 7. Then 1 p.m. March 21. Will give 10 days for final review.

11:30 a.m. April 16 joint luncheon with County, City, and the Town to present the document.

5:30 – 8:30 p.m. April 17 Open House

There was a general discussion of the watershed BMPs that go above and beyond other BMPS.

There was a discussion about the next public meeting on January 30.
